What everyone needs to know about games
MIL-day about games and gaming

Games are one of the most important cultural expressions of our times. How good is our knowledge and literacy when it comes to games? As design, teaching tool, media format and cultural expression? How good is our capability to evaluate and examine games and gaming?

Welcome to a full day of Media and Information Literacy

Date: Thursday October 31, 2019
Time: 09:00 to 16:00
Place: Gothenburg University
Street: Universitetsplatsen 1
City: Gothenburg
Room: Torgny Segerstedtsalen

09:00 - 09:30 Coffe and registration

09:30-09:50
Gothenburg University welcomes you - Kristina Lindahl.
Filmpedagogerna - Introduction on MIL, Media and Information Literacy - Fredrik Holmberg.

9:50-11:00
What everyone needs to know about games - Basic game literacy in the light of current debates in society
Jonas Linderoth, Professor of Media Arts, Aesthetics and Narration, University of Skövde

11:00-11:20 Short break

11:20-11:50
Serious games and gamification.
Adam Palmqvist, Industry-employed Doctoral Student, University of Skövde

11:50-13:00 Lunch

13:00-14:00
When our worries get bigger than the problem - about the importance of a balanced approach to media use among young people.
Ulf Dalquist, head of research, monitoring, and analyst at Statens Medieråd.

14:00-14:30
Games in education.
Marica Grudeborn, Special education teacher, MIL-pedagogue, Kvibergsskolan.

14:30-14:50 Coffee and fruit

14:50-15:50
E-sports as competition, sports and culture. A conversation about e-sports with gamers.
Torbjörn Svensson, Game researcher - University of Skövde
Anna-Sofia Alklind Taylor, Game researcher - University of Skövde
Liza Lind, gamer, Female Legends

15:50-16:00 Final words
Organizers:
Folkets Bio Filmpedagogerna, University of Skövde och Gothenburg University
In cooperation with Kultur i Väst.

Have any questions?:
Filmpedagogerna  fredrik@filmpedagogerna.se  031 - 12 10 90, 0736 - 82 75 13

Illustration: Jonas Linderoth